Re: Zoning submission for lands at Ballinalee, Co. Longford (Folio No. LD18795F)

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am the co-owner of two parcels of land contained in the above referenced folio. Appendix A to this submission contains a screenshot from Land Direct showing these two parcels noted as "A" and "B". Both land parcels are located within the well-established Shantobar housing development in the centre of Ballinalee.

Under the current 2015 - 2021 County Longford Development Plan ("Appendix 1 – Zonings") these parcels of land are zoned as follows:

Parcel A is zoned "Established Residential".

Parcel B is zoned as "Residential".

Parcel A currently has active planning permission for the construction of 8 houses (4 sets of 3 bed semi-detached houses). The planning reference of this permission is 19/290 and the permission was granted on 31 January 2020. Construction has not proceeded due to the impact of COVID-19.

Under the draft 2021 - 2027 County Longford Development Plan it is proposed to rezone both parcels of land as Strategic Residential Reserve.

Request:

I request that both parcels of land retain their existing zoning in the finalised 2021 - 2027 County Longford Development Plan, namely Established Residential (Parcel A) and Residential (Parcel B). I make this request based on the following reasons:

1) Both parcels of land are set fully within the well-established Shantobar housing development and as such all required services including foul sewer, surface water and watermain are available via connection to the existing services within the Shantobar development and without the need to disturb any public highways.

2) These parcels of land represent the incomplete elements of the Shantobar housing development and their completion will greatly enhance the development itself, the environment for the residents of the development and the village of Ballinalee in general. Furthermore, the development of these land parcels will help to prevent ongoing illegal dumping and other anti-social behaviour, which has been noted recently in the area. Both parcels of land are also ideally placed to deliver on the stated objective of the current government to prioritise the building of residential housing to cater for a growing population.

3) As noted above, Parcel A has active planning permission for the construction of 8 houses. The planning reference of this permission is 19/290 and the permission was granted on 31 January 2020. This active permission will ensure the completion of this section of the development.

Parcel A is marked as No. 12 on the "Ballinalee Proposed Material Amendments" map on page 41 of the "Material Alterations: Draft Longford County Development Plan 2021 – 2027 Vol. II Appendix". The "Changed Zoning" table (also on page 41) shows the proposed change in zoning for No. 12 from "Residential" to "Strategic Residential Reserve". However, on the previous page (page 40) of the appendix it is noted that "Land Parcel no. 12" will be zoned as "New Residential". As such there is an inconsistency within the document.

The relevant pages (pages 39 – 41) from the "Material Alterations Draft Longford County Development Plan 2021 – 2027 Vol. II Appendix" are included in Appendix B to this document.

4) Parcel B is not given a "Parcel No." on the "Ballinalee Proposed Material Amendments" map on page 41 of the "Material Alterations: Draft Longford County Development Plan 2021 – 2027 Vol. II Appendix". Furthermore, it has not been shown as a parcel of land which is subject to "Changed Zoning" on page 41. As this land parcel is currently zoned as "Residential" but per the map this is proposed to change to "Strategic Residential Reserve" there is either an inconsistency or an error contained within this document.

Parcel B borders the main street of Ballinalee village, directly across the road from the post office and shopping facilities. Parcel B is surrounded on all sides by either Town Core or Residential. As such the development of this central village location over the life of the 2021 - 2027 County Longford Development Plan will enhance and improve the village and would serve to fill an obviously missing jigsaw piece for the village. Given its location, this parcel of land would lend itself either in full or partially to development of housing for senior living. I also note that the proposed change in its designation from "Residential" to "Strategic Residential Reserve" is not actually shown on the "Changed Zoning" table on page 41 of the "Material Alterations Draft Longford County Development Plan 2021 – 2027 Vol. II Appendix". but only on the map itself. Therefore, it may be that the proposed change in zoning is an administrative error.

5) An engineer was engaged in early 2020 to draw up plans for the development of Parcel B. A number of drafts have been exchanged between the owners and the engineer but unfortunately further progress was halted due to COVID-19. It is the owners' intention to submit final plans for development of Parcel B to Longford County Council in 2022.

I have spoken with the local representative, Councillor Colin Dalton in relation to this submission and request.

Kind regards

Emmett McEvoy
