

A scenic view of a paved greenway bridge over a river. In the foreground, two cyclists are riding away from the viewer. The cyclist in front is wearing a yellow and white jersey and a black helmet. The second cyclist is wearing a dark blue and white jersey. In the distance, a group of five people is standing on the bridge, looking towards the right. The bridge has dark metal railings. The river is visible on both sides of the bridge, with green vegetation along the banks. The background is a dense forest of tall trees under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. A large white bird is flying in the sky above the text.
