

Applicants Please Note:

Following amendments to the Planning and Development Act, 2000 (as amended) and the Planning and Development Regulations, 2001 (as amended) you are hereby advised that Longford County Council has amended its planning application form and which now includes additional supplementary forms in respect of applications for rural one-off dwellings and for agricultural developments.

All applications for such developments should be accompanied by the relevant form, in addition to the standard planning application form.

While the non-completion of these supplementary forms will not render an application invalid, failure to complete the form accurately and in full is likely to result in a request for further information and may result in a refusal of planning permission.

The giving of false or misleading information will adversely affect the favourable consideration of the application.
