EXECUTIVE PLANNER

THE ROLE & DUTIES

This is a senior position within the Planning Department reporting to the Senior Planner and/or another employee nominated by the Chief Executive. The Executive Planner is responsible for managing elements of the Planning Department and providing a multiplicity of services to Local Authorities.

Reporting to the appropriate line manager, the Executive Planner will be responsible for the efficient management of their prescribed work area within the planning or related function. This is a management role. Managers at this level work within defined parameters relevant to the position, in accordance with the Local Authority's vision and objectives. The Executive Planner will be required to work closely with elected Councillors to deliver the full range of services and implement local policy decisions.

In the current economic climate, managers are charged with service delivery and change management in an environment of limited resource availability, both human and financial. Delivery of efficient services and value for money is crucial.

The duties of the office are to give the local authority and;

- (a) Such other local authorities or bodies for which the Chief Executive Officer, for the purposes acts as Manager, and;
- (b) To any other local authority or body with which an agreement has been made by the local authority or by any of the authorities or bodies mentioned in sub-paragraph (a) or this paragraph under the direction and supervision of the appropriate officer, such planning or ancillary services of an advisory, supervisory or executive nature as may be required by any local authority or body hereinbefore mentioned in the exercise and performance of any of its powers, functions and duties including the duty of assisting the Senior Planner, or other appropriate professional officer, in the supervision of the planning or ancillary services of any of the forgoing local authorities or bodies, and when required to do so, to perform the duty of acting for the appropriate professional officer of higher rank during the absence of such officer of higher rank.

Executive Planners are responsible for implementing programmes of work in the Planning Department and for providing a multiplicity of planning services and related services. Executive Planner positions are multi-faceted and may include some or all of the following key service areas:

- Development Management;
- Planning Enforcement;
- Economic Development;
- Forward Planning and Sustainable Development;
- Community Development.
- Climate Adaption and Just Transition
- Vacant Sites Levy, Zoned Land Tax, Derelict sites and housing estates/ taking in charge of residential developments

The duties of an Executive Planner may include the following: (this list is not exhaustive and may be reviewed from time to time as organisational needs require):

- Assess planning applications, pre-application proposals, enforcement cases against the Councils policies and provide recommendations and policy responses to these as required;
- Assist individuals, groups etc., on planning related issues;
- Prepare and implement development plan, local area plan and forward planning documents and prepare reports on these matters for the appropriate Committees of the Council;
- Liaising and working with constituent planning authorities and other public authorities on all aspects of implementation;
- Plan monitoring and reporting on implementation progress;
- Monitoring and assisting with development plan and local area plan preparation/reviews;
- Developing planning and regeneration projects, sourcing funding and implementing actions;
- Supervise and manage staff in their functional area;
- Participate & take part in the duties as required as part of the Organisational response to Climate Action and Just Transition to promote & ensure capacity building, empowering change and delivering action
- Any other associated duties as may be assigned from time to time.

The Successful candidate must be able to demonstrate knowledge of Irish Planning legislation, the key relevant European Directives and associated procedures, and an understanding of the particular planning issues relevant to County Longford and its wider region.

2. Selection Process

Stage 1 – Submission of Application Form via email

Candidates interested in applying for the position of Executive Planner should submit their completed application with supporting documentation form via email in PDF format to hrrecruitment@longfordcoco.ie

Each completed application must include a copy of all educational qualifications declared in the application form.

Failure to submit a completed application form, with all required supporting documentation, by the specified deadline will result in the application being deemed invalid and it will not be permitted to proceed any further in the selection process.

Stage 2 – Initial Screening

All completed application forms received by the stated closing date & time will be screened to ensure that they meet the minimum eligibility criteria for the position of Executive Planner in accordance with the declared Qualifications (as given on page 7 of this booklet).

Candidates who demonstrate that they meet the required eligibility criteria, their application will progress to Step 3 of the selection process.

Candidates who fail to demonstrate that they meet the minimum eligibility criteria required, their application will be deemed invalid and will not progress any further in the selection process.

Stage 3 – Shortlisting

Longford County Council reserves the right to shortlist applications, it is very important therefore, that candidates provide accurate, clear and comprehensive information in their completed application forms.

Shortlisting may take the form of:

1. a desktop-shortlisting process, where a board will be assigned to examine the information provided by the candidate and assess it against criteria required for the position, and/or
2. an online shortlisting interview.

Candidates who are shortlisted may have their application scored and ranked in order of merit. Based on the score awarded their application may progress to Step 4 of the selection process.

For candidates who are not shortlisted, their application will not progress any further in the selection process.

Stage 4 – Interview

On completion of Stage 3 of the selection process, successfully shortlisted candidates may be invited in batches, to attend for interview.

An independent interview board will be established by the Chief Executive of Longford County Council. The board will comprise a Chairperson and two other members, who will have expert knowledge in the relevant field. The objective of the board is to establish the applicant's suitability for the post and to rank the successful candidates in order of merit for appointment.

The interview will be the candidate's opportunity to demonstrate that they possess the required competencies, knowledge, skills and experience. The objective of the board is to assess the candidate's responses against agreed criteria and to identify the candidates who best meet the competencies required.

Longford County Council will issue advance notice of the date and time of the interview. It is the responsibility of the candidate to make themselves available for interview on the date and time notified and to ensure that they are able to successfully connect to the online interview if required.

Requests to reschedule notified interview dates or times cannot be accommodated.

Candidates who do not attend/connect for their interview at the time and on the date advised will be deemed to have withdrawn their application from the competition and their application will receive no further consideration.

Expenses incurred by candidates in attending for interview will be the responsibility of the candidate.

Candidates who are successful in the online interview process will be qualified for appointment in order of merit and placed on a panel. This panel may be used to fill both permanent and temporary Executive Planner vacancies that may arise during the life of the panel.

It should be noted that placement on a panel may not necessarily lead to a job offer. The selection process is not concluded until sought references are received and all other clearance checks, e.g. Garda Vetting, occupational health, verification of education qualifications, etc, have been carried out to the satisfaction of the Council.

Candidates on the Executive Planner panel who satisfy all the requirements for the post may be offered employment subject to:

1. Their place, in order of merit, on the panel
2. The requirements of Longford County Council.

Should a candidate decline an offer of employment or having accepted an offer of employment relinquish it prior to commencing in the post, they will be deemed to have withdrawn their application from the competition.

3. Feedback

Candidates shall be notified of the outcome of each stage of the selection process as soon as possible.

If, following the interview, a candidate is placed on a panel they shall be informed of their position on the panel. Details of marks attained in the interview process will be provided upon receipt of written request.

4. Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn

Candidates who do not attend for testing and/or interview when and where required by Longford County Council and/or the Testing Company, or who do not, when requested, furnish such evidence as required by Longford County Council within the specified timeframe, regarding any matter relevant to their candidature, will be deemed to have withdrawn their application from the competition.

5. References

Applicants are required to advise the names of two responsible persons to whom they are well known but not related.

In advance of any offer of employment, Longford County Council reserves the right to seek both written and verbal references from current and previous employers, educational institutions or any other organisations with which the candidate has been associated. Longford County Council reserves the right to determine the merit, appropriateness and relevance of such references and referees. Information sought from referees shall be structured around the requirements of the job and the job description, person specification and/or competency profile provided.

6. Verification of Education Qualifications

Prior to appointment, the candidate will be required to present the original parchment of their certificate, diploma and/or degree and any other supporting documentation required by the Council*, to the Human Resources department in order to verify their qualifications.

* Non-Irish Qualifications must be accompanied by a determination from Quality and Qualifications Ireland (QQI) to establish their comparability against the Irish National Framework of Qualifications, overseas qualifications must also be accompanied by a translation document.

7. Pre-Employment Medical

Prior to appointment the candidate will be required to complete a Health Declaration and to undergo a medical examination, at their own expense, by a qualified medical practitioner nominated by the Council. On taking up employment the expense of this medical examination will be refunded.

8. Garda Clearance

Garda Vetting will be sought in accordance with the National Vetting Bureau (Children and Vulnerable Persons) Acts 2012 to 2016 and the applicant will be required to fully cooperate with this process.

9. Canvassing

Any attempt by a candidate, or by any person(s) acting at the candidate's instigation, directly or indirectly, by means of written communication or otherwise influence in the candidate's favour, any member or employee of the Council or person nominated by the County Council to interview or examine applicants, will automatically disqualify the candidate for the position being sought.

10. Confidentiality

Longford County Council, in its recruitment and selection procedures, has appropriate measures in place to protect the confidentiality of all applicants. All enquiries, applications and other aspects that form part of the recruitment formalities are treated as confidential and are not disclosed to anyone, outside of those directly involved in the recruitment process - subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Acts, 1997-2014.

Records created, maintained and stored by Longford County Council as part of the recruitment and selection process are subject to a range of legislation, including Freedom of Information and Data Protection.
